INVESTING DESTINY

Monthly Review

Chinese 8th Month (7 Sep to 5 Oct)

I'm so glad that Chinese 7th month is ending.

In my last review, I shared that Chinese 7th month is a month with "sensitive star + challenging energy". If it hits into your Self or Mindset box, destiny may lead events into your life and want to trigger your emotions.

It sits in my Self box, I was mentally prepared, and yet destiny still caught me off guard. For the first time, COVID became so real to me, my good friend and the whole family tested positive, in 20 days, the father passed away. I was affected because I saw (and we saw) the challenging energy, in the 7th month and 2021, reminded and took precautions, but yet we cannot see and stop COVID.

We cannot stop challenging energy coming from COVID, but we must believe we can avoid challenging energy coming towards our investment and wealth. We can do our best and avoid challenging investing years and months. Look out for years and months with good money stars and positive energy.

Looking forward for the second half of 2021.

A reminder again, that Investing Destiny energy is a personal one, everyone has their own destiny energy, based on their own Zi Wei Dou Shu destiny chart, own character, mindset and actions. So, nobody can ride on someone's good Investing Destiny energy. Universe always rewards according to one's efforts. Employee clocks in 8 hours of work per day (20 days a month) to get a monthly pay. Salesman puts in hours of hard work to get a good commission. Businessman invested great effort and time to achieve great returns. And yet most investors want to achieve 20 to 50% return by putting less than an hour a day doing research and understand the market and their investments. That's why most investors lose money.

Chinese 8th month, 太陰祿, "money star + good $ element", some good energy is arriving. If it enters into your money box, watch and learn, see any positive actions happen to your stock(s).

A month with money stars and good $ element (財星撞到祿) is a good month to spot good opportunity. For example, my Chinese 6th month is a month with money stars and good $ element (with no challenging energy at all). No amazing return happens in the 6th month, but I spot a new opportunity and took action.

This investment unexpectedly went up by 140% in these 2 days, it went up during the 7th month. 7th month is a challenging month for me, but I took that action during 6th month. The purpose for sharing this example is to let you understand how to apply Investing Destiny concepts.

And, of course, always put effort to understand your investment, choose the right timing to spot good opportunity.

(a note for investors who have "last 10 days good energy" formation for 7th month, you should have noticed how market volume is picking up in these 3 days, stocks hitting a one year low is u-turning up, will it continue? check your own Investing Destiny energy. Good luck for next 4 months)
